

The Australiana Society

invite you to an evening with the Gilbert+Tobin Contemporary Indigenous Art Collection.

Wednesday 29 November 2017
6–8pm

In 2011 Gilbert+Tobin began the development of an art collection that recognises and supports the existence and innovation of contemporary indigenous artists. This new art collection added to indigenous works Gilbert + Tobin already had, including a group of Larrakij by Yolngu artists from Yirrkala, a selection of paintings by senior desert artists and a group of works by the members of the Lockhart River Art Collection. The collection is curated by Hetti Perkins.

Please, come along to Gilbert + Tobin's new Barangaroo offices, designed by MPA Projects, to hear Hetti Perkins speak about this wonderful collection. The design of the new space is inspired by the Australian landscape and it embraces high-end finishes of red heart gum, blackbutt wall panelling and stone flooring.
